The Journal of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene is an international journal which has been well established for many years in the field of tropical medicine throughout the world, and covers all aspects of modern diagnosis and treatment. Drawing on studies in the disciplines of immunology, haematology, parasitology, epidemiology, etc., the journal presents a multidisciplinary approach to the subject. The emphasis of its editorial content is on material of the highest quality concerning community, health, epidemiology and preventive medicine. The journal is published on behalf of the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine.
